25 It is the intent of the legislature that for all purposes under 31 in-law in a specified way to another individual, is granted on 32 equivalent terms, substantive and procedural, to an individual because 33 the individual is or was in a state registered domestic partnership or 34 because the individual is or was, based on a state registered domestic 35 partnership, related in a specified way to another individual. The 1 provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to achieve equal 2 treatment, to the extent not in conflict with federal law, of state 3 registered domestic partners and married spouses.

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 34.05 RCW
5 to read as follows:

11 granted or imposed by statute to an individual because that individual 12 is or was a spouse in a marital relationship are granted or imposed on 13 equivalent terms to an individual because that individual is or was in 15 (2) Except where inconsistent with federal law or regulations 16 applicable to federal benefit programs, all agency orders creating new 17 rules, or amending existing rules, shall be formulated to reflect the 8 relationships and married persons, and references to dissolution of 9 marriage shall apply equally to state registered domestic partnerships 10 that have been terminated, dissolved, or invalidated, to the extent 11 that such interpretation does not conflict with federal law. Where

20 the writ. After receipt of the writ, the garnishee is required 21 to withhold payment of any money that was due to you and to 22 withhold any other property of yours that the garnishee held or 23 controlled. This notice of your rights is required by law.

24 YOU HAVE THE FOLLOWING EXEMPTION RIGHTS:

25 WAGES. If the garnishee is your employer who owes wages or 26 other personal earnings to you, your employer is required to 27 pay amounts to you that are exempt under state and federal 28 laws, as explained in the writ of garnishment. You should 29 receive a copy of your employer's answer, which will show how 30 the exempt amount was calculated. If the garnishment is for 31 child support, the exempt amount paid to you will be forty 32 percent of wages due you, but if you are supporting a spouse, 33 state registered domestic partner, or dependent child, you are 34 entitled to claim an additional ten percent as exempt.

35 BANK ACCOUNTS. If the garnishee is a bank or other institution

1 with which you have an account in which you have 2 deposited benefits such as Temporary Assistance
3 for Needy Families, Supplemental Security Income
4 (SSI), Social Security, veterans' benefits,
5 unemployment compensation, or a United States 6 pension, you may claim the account as fully 7 exempt if you have deposited only such benefit 8 funds in the account. It may be partially 9 exempt even though you have deposited money from 10 other sources in the same account. An exemption 11 is also available under RCW 26.16.200, providing 12 that funds in a community bank account that can 13 be identified as the earnings of a stepparent
14 are exempt from a garnishment on the child 15 support obligation of the parent.

16 OTHER EXEMPTIONS. If the garnishee holds other property of 17 yours, some or all of it may be exempt under RCW 6.15.010, a 18 Washington statute that exempts up to five hundred dollars of 19 property of your choice (including up to one hundred dollars in 20 cash or in a bank account) and certain property such as 21 household furnishings, tools of trade, and a motor vehicle (all 22 limited by differing dollar values).

23 HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS. Fill out the enclosed claim form and 24 mail or deliver it as described in instructions on the claim 25 form. If the plaintiff does not object to your claim, the 26 funds or other property that you have claimed as exempt must be 27 released not later than 10 days after the plaintiff receives 28 your claim form. If the plaintiff objects, the law requires a 29 hearing not later than 14 days after the plaintiff receives 30 your claim form, and notice of the objection and hearing date
31 will be mailed to you at the address that you put on the claim 32 form.

33 THE LAW ALSO PROVIDES OTHER EXEMPTION RIGHTS. IF NECESSARY, AN 34 ATTORNEY CAN ASSIST YOU TO ASSERT THESE AND OTHER RIGHTS, BUT 35 YOU MUST ACT IMMEDIATELY TO AVOID LOSS OF RIGHTS BY DELAY.

1 Sec. 135. RCW 49.78.020 and 2006 c 59 s 2 are each amended to read 2 as follows:

3 Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in 4 this section apply throughout this chapter.

5 (1) "Child" means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a 6 stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco 7 parentis, who is: (a) Under eighteen years of age; or (b) eighteen 8 years of age or older and incapable of self-care because of a mental or 9 physical disability.

10 (2) "Department" means the department of labor and industries.

11 (3) "Director" means the director of the department.

12 (4)(a) "Employee" means a person who has been employed: (i) For at 13 least twelve months by the employer with respect to whom leave is 14 requested under RCW 49.78.220; and (ii) for at least one thousand two 15 hundred fifty hours of service with the employer during the previous 16 twelve-month period.

17 (b) "Employee" does not mean a person who is employed at a worksite 18 at which the employer as defined in (a) of this subsection employs less 19 than fifty employees if the total number of employees employed by that 20 employer within seventy-five miles of that worksite is less than fifty.

21 (5) "Employer" means: (a) Any person, firm, corporation, 22 partnership, business trust, legal representative, or other business 23 entity which engages in any business, industry, profession, or activity 24 in this state and includes any unit of local government including, but 25 not limited to, a county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi-26 municipal corporation, or political subdivision, which employs fifty or 27 more employees for each working day during each of twenty or more 28 calendar workweeks in the current or preceding calendar year; (b) the 29 state, state institutions, and state agencies; and (c) any unit of 30 local government including, but not limited to, a county, city, town, 31 municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or political 32 subdivision.

33 (6) "Employment benefits" means all benefits provided or made 34 available to employees by an employer, including group life insurance, 35 health insurance, disability insurance, sick leave, annual leave, 36 educational benefits, and pensions except benefits that are provided by 37 a practice or written policy of an employer or through an employee 38 benefit plan as defined in 29 U.S.C. Sec. 1002(3).

1 (7) "Family member" means a child, parent, (~~or~~) spouse, or state 2 registered domestic partner of an employee.

3 (8) "Health care provider" means: (a) A person licensed as a 4 physician under chapter 18.71 RCW or an osteopathic physician and 5 surgeon under chapter 18.57 RCW; (b) a person licensed as an advanced 6 registered nurse practitioner under chapter 18.79 RCW; or (c) any other 7 person determined by the director to be capable of providing health 8 care services.

9 (9) "Intermittent leave" is leave taken in separate blocks of time 10 due to a single qualifying reason.

11 (10) "Leave for a family member's serious health condition" means 12 leave as described in RCW 49.78.220(1)(c).

13 (11) "Leave for the birth or placement of a child" means leave as 14 described in RCW 49.78.220(1)(a) or (b).

15 (12) "Leave for the employee's serious health condition" means 16 leave as described in RCW 49.78.220(1)(d).

17 (13) "Parent" means the biological or adoptive parent of an 18 employee or an individual who stood in loco parentis to an employee 19 when the employee was a child.

20 (14) "Period of incapacity" means an inability to work, attend 21 school, or perform other regular daily activities because of the 22 serious health condition, treatment of that condition or recovery from 23 it, or subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care.

24 (15) "Reduced leave schedule" means a leave schedule that reduces 25 the usual number of hours per workweek, or hours per workday, of an 26 employee.

27 (16)(a) "Serious health condition" means an illness, injury, 28 impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

29 (i) Inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical 30 care facility, including any period of incapacity; or

31 (ii) Continuing treatment by a health care provider. A serious 32 health condition involving continuing treatment by a health care 33 provider includes any one or more of the following:

34 (A) A period of incapacity of more than three consecutive calendar 35 days, and any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to 36 the same condition, that also involves:

37 (I) Treatment two or more times by a health care provider, by a

1 nurse or physician's assistant under direct supervision of a health
2 care provider, or by a provider of health care services under orders 3 of, or on referral by, a health care provider; or

4 (II) Treatment by a health care provider on at least one occasion 5 which results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the 6 supervision of the health care provider;

7 (B) Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, or for prenatal 8 care;

9 (C) Any period of incapacity or treatment for such incapacity due 10 to a chronic serious health condition. A chronic serious health 11 condition is one which:

12 (I) Requires periodic visits for treatment by a health care 13 provider, or by a nurse or physician's assistant under direct 14 supervision of a health care provider;

15 (II) Continues over an extended period of time, including recurring 16 episodes of a single underlying condition; and 17 (III) May cause episodic rather than a continuing period of 18 incapacity;

19 (D) A period of incapacity which is permanent or long-term due to 20 a condition for which treatment may not be effective. The employee or 21 family member must be under the continuing supervision of, but need not 22 be receiving active treatment by, a health care provider; or

23 (E) Any period of absence to receive multiple treatments, including 24 any period of recovery from the treatments, by a health care provider 25 or by a provider of health care services under orders of, or on 26 referral by, a health care provider, either for restorative surgery 27 after an accident or other injury, or for a condition that would likely 28 result in a period of incapacity of more than three consecutive 29 calendar days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment, such 30 as cancer, severe arthritis, or kidney disease.

31 (b) Treatment for purposes of (a) of this subsection includes, but 32 is not limited to, examinations to determine if a serious health 33 condition exists and evaluations of the condition. Treatment does not 34 include routine physical examinations, eye examinations, or dental 35 examinations. Under (a)(ii)(A)(II) of this subsection, a regimen of 36 continuing treatment includes, but is not limited to, a course of 37 prescription medication or therapy requiring special equipment to 38 resolve or alleviate the health condition. A regimen of continuing

1 treatment that includes taking over-the-counter medications, such as 2 aspirin, antihistamines, or salves, or bed-rest, drinking fluids, 3 exercise, and other similar activities that can be initiated without a 4 visit to a health care provider, is not, by itself, sufficient to 5 constitute a regimen of continuing treatment for purposes of this 6 chapter.

7 (c) Conditions for which cosmetic treatments are administered are 8 not "serious health conditions" unless inpatient hospital care is 9 required or unless complications develop. Unless complications arise, 10 the common cold, the flu, ear aches, upset stomach, minor ulcers, 11 headaches other than migraine, routine dental or orthodontia problems, 12 and periodontal disease are examples of conditions that do not meet the 13 definition of a "serious health condition" and do not qualify for leave 14 under this chapter. Restorative dental or plastic surgery after an 15 injury or removal of cancerous growths are serious health conditions 16 provided all the other conditions of this section are met. Mental 17 illness resulting from stress or allergies may be serious health 18 conditions provided all the other conditions of this section are met.

19 (d) Substance abuse may be a serious health condition if the 20 conditions of this section are met. However, leave may only be taken 21 for treatment for substance abuse by a health care provider or by a 22 provider of health care services upon referral by a health care 23 provider. Absence from work because of the employee's use of the 24 substance, rather than for treatment, does not qualify for leave under 25 this chapter.

26 (e) Absences attributable to incapacity under (a)(ii)(B) or (C) of 27 this subsection qualify for leave under this chapter even though the 28 employee or the immediate family member does not receive treatment from 29 a health care provider during the absence, and even if the absence does 30 not last more than three days.

31 (17) "Spouse" means a husband or wife, as the case may be, or state 32 registered domestic partner.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 136. A new section is added to chapter 49.86

6 (1) For the purposes of determining the Washington taxable estate, 7 a deduction is allowed from the federal taxable estate for:

8 (a) The value of qualified real property reduced by any amounts 9 allowable as a deduction in respect of the qualified real property and 10 tangible personal property under section 2053(a)(4) of the internal 11 revenue code, if the decedent was at the time of his or her death a 12 citizen or resident of the United States.

13 (b) The value of any tangible personal property used by the 14 decedent or a member of the decedent's family for a qualified use on 15 the date of the decedent's death, reduced by any amounts allowable as 16 a deduction in respect of the tangible personal property under section 17 2053(a)(4) of the internal revenue code, if all of the requirements of 19 at the time of his or her death a citizen or resident of the United 20 States.

21 (c) The value of real property that is not deductible under (a) of 22 this subsection solely by reason of subsection (10)(f)(i)(B) of this 35 extent the property is includible in the gross estate of the decedent.

36 (3) If the decedent and the decedent's surviving spouse at any time 37 held qualified real property as community property, the interest of the

1 surviving spouse in the property shall be taken into account under this 2 section to the extent necessary to provide a result under this section 3 with respect to the property which is consistent with the result which 4 would have obtained under this section if the property had not been 5 community property.

7 growing on the woodland may be deducted if otherwise qualified under 8 this section.

9 (5) If property is qualified real property with respect to a

1 be disabled if the individual has a mental or physical impairment which

11 participation with respect to the replaced property by the decedent or
